RE: MUR 4895

Dear Mr. Anderson:

On May 6, 1999, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the respondents. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on July 26, 1999. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

MUR 4895

BOB BARR FOR CONGRESS

George Anderson alleges in his complaint that, from 1995 to the present, Rep. Bob Barr's campaign committees have failed to properly disclose sufficient detail about various campaign expenditures and reimbursements. He also alleges that the committees' FEC reports contain inadequate occupation / employer information for contributors. The complaint includes several other matters that are not within the FEC's jurisdiction.

Respondent committees state that the occupation / employer issue is moot in light of a recent conciliation agreement reached with the FEC on May 21, 1999 on the same issues in MURs 4357 and 4802. It further notes that the Committee's efforts in 1994 were subject to full Commission scrutiny during the course of the investigation of these MURs, and corrective action already taken.

This matter is less significant relative to other matters pending before the Commission.
